

The background of the entire image is a painting. It depicts a large, gnarled tree trunk in the foreground, with a significant hollow or cavity in its center. The bark of the tree is rendered with thick, textured brushstrokes in shades of brown, tan, and reddish-orange. The hollow is dark and deep. Behind the tree, a landscape is visible, featuring rolling hills in shades of yellow and green under a pale blue sky. The overall style is impressionistic and painterly.

MASS OF HEALING AND HOPE

VOCAL ORGAN AND GUITAR

BY DON STEWART

©ACORN MUSIC AUSTRALIA

As I reflected on the last decade, I felt that many would agree that the church, our country, creation and all of humanity are in deep need of healing and the renewal of hope. The Mass helps us on this path, inviting us into the transformative mystery of Christ's suffering, death and resurrection. I hope that the communities who sing this mass setting can, in some small way, enter more fully into this great mystery and receive the healing and restoration of hope that God desires for all of us.

Don Stewart

Cover painting:

From the series of paintings by Rachel Peters entitled
"What Do They Know?"

"These paintings of scar trees came about after a walk on country with local indigenous friends. They introduced us to these ancient red gums with scars hundreds of years old. The holes were cut, and the bark used for canoes, shields, or carrying vessels. They told a story of the past, and yet still stood proudly today. They spoke about healing that that comes from telling stories, honouring what has happened and the beauty of allowing growth around these once jagged cuts."

Acknowledgements:

I would like to thank Bishop Paul Bird for support and encouragement in publishing this mass setting. To Dr. Paul Taylor for taking the time to review the mass setting, recommend changes that were needed and helping me to deepen my understanding of liturgical music.

Thanks also to my local community of Star of the Sea Parish, Warrnambool especially to the Timorese, Vietnamese and Filipino members and Anglo members of our multicultural choir, whose faith and enthusiasm have renewed my hope for the church.

To Rachel Peters, longtime friend and companion on the journey of faith, for allowing me to use her wonderful painting.

Finally, thanks to my wife Katherine, for love support, prayer and everything else we've shared so far.
